Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

1. Claims 32-36 are allowed.
2. Relative to independent claims 32 the major difference between the teaching of the prior art of record (Kilian and Yue) and the instant invention is that the said prior art does not teach a plurality of equally spaced keys on a single keypad for inputting data to a portable electronic device; wherein said keys of said plurality of equally spaced keys are individually sized such that multiple ones can be depressed by a single finger tip depression and wherein adjacent keys differ in height; and wherein said keys comprise at least one set of keys that are raised for providing key differentiation and to facilitate single key selection and wherein said keys are substantially checkered pattern on said miniature keyboard.

Relative to independent claims 35 the major difference between the teaching of the prior art of record (Kilian and Yue) and the instant invention is that the said prior art does not teach a portable electronic device with a processor coupled to a bus, a memory coupled to said bus, a display screen coupled to said bus, and an input mechanism comprising a plurality of equally spaced keys on a single keypad that are individually sized, such that each individual key surface is substantially smaller than a surface of a single finger depression and wherein keys comprise alternating key diagonals of differing heights with respect to adjacent key diagonals.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
